SOCIAL DEMOCRATS INDORSED.

Stormy Discussion at Central Trades and Labor Union,

At the regular biweekly meeting of the Central Trades and Labor Union at Walhalla Hall yesterday afternoon an address prepared by G. A. Hochn was indorsed with but three dissenting volces. This is in effect an indorsement of the platform of the Social Democratic party. Before the indorsement was secured, however, there was a discussion lasting nearly two hours, and there were several stormy scenes.

Several boycotts were indorsed, and the final report of the Auditing Committee, which was appointed to examine the accounts and close up the business of the street railway strikers' fund, was received and adopted.

A communication was received from the National Federation of Labor, asking the Trades and Labor Union to Investigate the St. Louis Local Union of Insurance Accuts, which has applied to the American Federation of Labor for a charter.

Mr. Highleyman had not noticed the horse is fore, but was brought to a sudden real-ination of what was happening by the horse allebting squarely in the bed of the runabout. It trimpled his feet and kickel Ara Highleyman. The weight of the animal crushed the bed of the bugsy, and occupants and horse went down in a Bean. While struggling to free itself the horse kickel Mrs. Highleyman once or twice. Not Highleyman fainted and Doctor H. C. Harding of No. 15th North Grand avenue, who was passing, attended her.

After freeling itself the horse continued section is compled by Judge Chirk.
Inspector Laify will be assigned to daily some other part of the State, and the ale of electrations as butter will be ractically unrestricted. According to the official records, there are 122 grocers in St. Leals who have taken our licenses to sell leenmargaries, but ell except 16 per cent of these profess to handle only pure but-

Judge W.
